Educating Middle Level Learners
In the Middle School

For educators and school leaders who are:

- Working to implement district-wide systems to support continuous professional growth.
- Educating middle level learners in the middle school.
- Using and considering mentoring strategies for new teachers.

Focus your professional learning on improving effective instructional practice through engaged learning.

Participants will delve into strategies that have been proven to improve instruction aimed at helping all students achieve and succeed. Join your Montana colleagues for two days of inspiring speakers, practical sessions, and stimulating discussions surrounding the concepts of forming and maintaining a true middle school, connecting effective instruction and mentoring, and building school systems that support continuous professional growth.

Meals	Lunches and break snacks will be provided both days as part of your registration.
Lodging	Make your own lodging arrangements. A special room rate of $89.00 per night for a single room is available for participants at the conference hotel, Holiday Inn Great Falls: OPI EPAS ROOMBLOCK 2016.
